THE COURTS.

Decision in the Case of the Excise Law—The Injunctions Vacated—A Disgraceful Scene—The Decision of the Court of Appenis Called "Bogus," and the Remark Applauded by the Liquor Deniers—Rebuke of the Court—Opinions of the Judges, &c., &c., Before Judges Daly, Brady and Cardozo.
Yesterday morning there was a grand raily of the liquor dealers at this court in anticipation of the decision of the case of Holt vs. The Excise Board, which it was understood would be given at that time. The Court stated that the order of the Special Team (granting the injunction) was reversed, and that the order for them to hands and slight cheers.

Judge Daly—It is not traditionary in this court to hear the highest tribunal in the State thus spoken of and remain silent. The Court of Appeals have settled all the questions of this case. The tendency is to bring the administration of justice into degradation. I trust, therefore, that if anything of the kind takes place, it will be speedily checked; and if any demonstrations such as have taken place are repeated again, I shall use the full authority of the court to rearrain them, and if that fails I shall adopt other measures.

Mr. McKeon—This is not the place to suswer the court. I submit to the rebuke, but there are my convictions. I stand upon that, and in the proper time and place it will be shown.

Coursel for the liquor dealers wheel for a week, when coursel for the liquor dealers wheel for a week, when coursel for the liquor dealers wheel for a week, when coursel for the liquor dealers wheel for a week, when coursel for the state of the should not be enforced until next Friday, with the exception of the provision relating to the traffic on the Sabbath, which would be enforced next Sunday.

The question arising in regard to those cases which have not been argued, the Court decided, that those cases were to be considered as having been submitted, and the decision shall bind them also.

George W. Hid us. The Commissioner of Excise, dc.—All the questions arising in this case were presented and passed upon in the four cases decided by the Court of Appeals. We are asked to disregard those cases upon the ground that they were collusterly made up for the purpose of obtaining the decision which has been resident and that as submissions of a courtoversy without action, they were not in the mode in which has been resourced; and that as submissions of a courtoversy without action, they were not in the mode in which has been resourced, and that as submissions of a courtoversy without action, they were not in the mode in which has been resourced, and that as administion of a courtoversy wit mast go to the tribinal—the Supreme Court of the United States—where the decision of that court can alone be reviewed. The order appealed from should be reversed.

The Same wa the Same.—We have been asked to disregard the decision of the Court of Appeals in cases involving questions similar to those presented for consideration in this and other cases, upon the ground that the Supreme Court of the United States, to whose authority we owe higher allegance, has in effect deciared the act "unconstitutional, which the Court of Appeals has determined to be otherwise. This proposition cannot be entertained, and we must hold the decision of the Court of Appeals conclusive upon us as to all questions to which it relates. Whether the cases heard and determined by that court were lone fide cases or not, as suggested by Judge Daly, is a matter which should have been addressed to the consideration of the tribunal to which those cases originated or the Court of Appeals. The judges of the Court of Appeals are equally bound with us to observe all obligation to the laws of the land are dedared by the Supreme Court of the United States, and they have considered them, and said that the act in question is not a violation of any clause or provision of the constitution of this reate or of the United States, and they have considered them, and said that the act in question to merefore, to change the opinion entertained by the court when the views of the respondent's course were presented in relation to the de sision of the Court of Appeals, and its eff of and the order of appeal from should therefore be reversed.

OFINENCE STATE and the electronication of the Court of Appeals, together with the opinion of that tribunal, written by Judge Wright, which were submitted to us by the course for the appeal the right to reverse our fixed judgment, is conclusive, and most be constitutional. That decision, as the determination of the court of Appeals, it tollows, in conformity with that decision, that whatever opinions I may entertain individua the cases reported in the HERALD of yesterday, and was argued on the part of the petitioner by John C. Hackett

The complaint of John H. Lester sets forth substan-ially that he is a native of the State of Connecticut and tably that he is a native of the State of Connecticut and has at all times been a loyal citizen of the United States, and has for many years been a resident of New York. State. In October, 1860, the plaintiff r moved with his family to Richmond, Va., for the purpose of carrying on his business and establishing hinself at that place; and shortly after his arrival there, in the year 1861, a rebellion brake out and continued up to about the menth of April, 1865, during which time the plaintiff was, by force of circumstances, compeled to remain in Richmond, but without taking any part whatever in the matrrection in a civil, military or naval capacity. On the 17th day of July 1862, an act was passed by Congress providing for the suppression of rebellion and the punishment of treason and on the 8th day of December, 1863, the President issued the amnesty proclamation. On the 18th day of January, 1864, as soon as practicable thereafter, the plaintiff processed to Martinsburg, W. Va., for the purpose of availing himself of the conditions of this proclamation, and took the prescribed oath of allegiance before one V. A. Palmer, Provost Marshal at that place. On the 24th of January plaintiff alleges he proceeded to Washington and obtained in the usual manner a pass from the Secretary of War allowing him to go through to Fortrees Monroe to receive his wife and children, who were to arrive at that place by flag of true boat from Richmond. The plaintiff went to Fortrees Monroe and was there are ed by order of Major General B. F. Butler, the defendant, and placed in pris n, and after being contined for about a month was taken from confinement and tried by dram head court sarctal on certain specifications and charges, and synteneos to be confined at hard labor with a heavy ball and chain to be annexed to his limbs, "at such place as defendant should direct, "for the period of ten prison in Northampton country, Va., and in a military prison it hattern, on the coast of North Carolina, from prison in Northaropton county, Va., and in a military prison at Hatteras, on the coast of North Carolina, from the 5th day of March, 1864, to the 23d day of April, 1865, having the ball and chain attached to his limb and being compelled to perform hard manual labor. The clothing, private papers, books, amnesty cath and pass from the recreatry of War were, it is further alleged, torothly and without his consent taken from him, and for the injury in facted by this imprisonment the plainties seeks damages in the sum of $100,000.

A second complaint of John H. Lester, charges the defendant with unlawful conversion of property and effects, embracing about $290 in money and a unmber of hooks, papers, bonds, &c., belonging to plaintiff's business, and alleges that by reason of their being taken from him he has sustained damage to the amount of $75,000 by reason of not being enabled to fuifil contracts, attend to suits at haw then pending, &c., and claims judgment for that amount. The grounds urged by conselvere substantially the same as those taken in the proceedings against the same de endant reported in the Herallo of yesterday. Papers taken and decision reserved.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

Another Batch of Counterfelters in Court. Before Judge Smalley.

The United States vs. John Disbrow.—The defendant,

The United States or John Disbrou.—The defendant, proprietor of the Arbor in West Houston street, was indited with having on the 5th day of June last uttered and sold a large quantity of counterfeit fractional currency—sixty-three pieces of fifty-cent currency—with intent to defraud some person unknown. The facts of the case as detailed by Mr. Bell, Assistant United states Dustriet Attorney, are briefly as follows:—A detective of the secret service division of the Treasury Department from information he received with regard to certain operations of the defendant and other parties acting under him, and who were to be met at any time at the Arbor in Houston street, came to the city and entered at once into negotiations with D sbrow for the sale and purchase of counterfeiter money, kaving an antroduction from a counterfeiter doing business in another city. The defendant at the first interview remarked that the detective could not come better recommended. The detective stated that he wanted ten and five cent currency stamps. These the defendant was not at the time supplied with. He was then asked if he had any of the list issue of the fifty cent currency; he replied he had not, but had a must stock of the previous issue to that, detective remarked that after all he kept but a "dry concern;" defendant said he would have had just then an abuneau supply, but thus he had that very morning sent of by three dealers in the stoff $5,000 of the last fifties to fituaville, in. The detective then gald he would take $15 worth of whatever he had which, after remarking he did not deal in suck small quantifies, the prisoner consented to accommodate him with, and fixed the next morning for the trade. According to appointment, the detective on the following morning put in an appearance at the Aroes, and in reply morning.

Judge Smalley—In the case of Bradley, who was jointly inducted with the defendant here, and who withdrew the plea of not guitty and pleaded guilty, I deferred sentence for a week, and this will also be the rule in by indicted with the defendant here, and who windrew the plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty, I deferred sentence for a week, and this will also be the rule in this case.

The prisoner was then removed.

Another Countries at Thems Harres Guilty.

The United States on Thomas Harresgion.— the defendant pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging brown the passing counterfeit United States currency, and was defended by Mr. Stuart. At the opening of the case defendant's counted said this was 'another coon that don't want any of the Instrict Attorney fire." The defendant would withdraw his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to the indictment, which he did and was removed, sentence being deferred.

Joseph Bradley, jointly inducted with John Pibbrow, in whose case sentence was delered for a week, withdrew under the pressure of the prosecution his plea of not guilty, and pleaded guilty. Sentence, as in the other cases, deferred.

Gillomer Demichille, also indicted as a counterfeiter, withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. Sentence deferred.

A CONSTRUCTURE STANDE HIS TRIAL AND IS CONVETED. Philip Martin, charged with passing counterfeit United to the prosecution and an ingentions defence on the part of the councel the jury readered a verdict of guilty. Sentence deferred.

MARINE COURT. Before Judge Hearn and a Jury.

Before Judge Bearn and a Jury.

Ingraham ns. McNamara.—In this case, which, as already reported in the Herato, was an act on to recover damages for injuries caused to the plaintiff in consequence of being run over by a truck, the property of the defendant, the jury tound a verdict for the plaintiff for $500.

Before Judge Gross and a Jury.

Paul Edger ns. James Attheom and James Hamill.—Plaintiff owned a house worth $150, with which he was enabled to earn a good deal of money. The defendants, he alleges, undertook to shoe the borse in a proper manner; but the plaintiff says that the work was done in so unskilful and unworkmanlike a manner that the horse was rendered worthless, nais having been driven into the queck and fiesh. The defence is a general dual of the allegat one made by the plaintiff. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff for $225.
